Perspective
is Power

MENTAL HEALTH, JEWISH IDENTITY, AND RESILIENCE

In the aftermath of October 7th, Malka Shaw founded Keshet Shalom Projects, a trauma-informed initiative addressing the psychological impact of antisemitism, communal trauma, and disconnection. With over 25 years of clinical experience and a strong Jewish educational background, she brings expertise in cultural competence, trauma recovery, and resilience. Through workshops, speaking events, and trainings, Malka equips professionals and leaders to navigate trauma, counter propaganda and indoctrination, and foster strength and connection in times of crisis.
